Eliza McCardle Johnson was born October 4, 1810 in Leesburg, Tennessee. She was only 16 years old when she married Andrew Johnson. She taught him arithmetic and writing. She often let her oldest daughter perform the duties of White House hostess. Eliza died on January 15, 1876.