The Bee and the Mountain Laurel

1. Bee approaches laurel. Springlike stamens are caught in their pockets.

2. Stigma brushes pollen from previous flower off bee's underside just before he lands.

3. Bee dives for nectar. Releases stamens which spring up and shower his underside with pollen.