

Breakfast Cereal

March 7th is National Cereal Day in honor of the day in 1897 that Dr. John Kellogg served the first cornflakes to his patients. In 1906, his brother, Will Kellogg, added sugar and marketed cornflakes as a breakfast cereal.