

Design Your Own Stamp

The first locomotive was used on a U.S. postage stamp on March 27, 1869. This was the year the transcontinental railroad was completed. It was the first U.S. stamp to have a picture of an historical event instead of a portrait.

Design your own stamp commemorating something from your lifetime. Don't forget to include the value of the stamp.