

First Lady Edith Kermit Carow Roosevelt

Edith Kermit Carow Roosevelt was born on August 6, 1861 in Norwich, Connecticut. Edith Carow Roosevelt was a childhood playmate of Theodore Roosevelt. They married two years after Theodore's first wife died. They had 6 children and lots of pets, including a pony, in the White House. Theodore Roosevelt relied on his wife's advice and judgment.