Across

2) The time signature commonly used is 4/4, also known as _____.

3) The dot adds ____ of the value of the note to itself.

5) A whole rest is equal to _____ beats.

6) The symbol placed before a note to raise it one half step.

7) A sign which signifies a measured silence.

9) A note that lasts for 1/2 beat.

10) It is the commonly used clef in music.

11) It indicates how many notes and what kind of notes are in a measure.
14) The symbol placed before a note to lower it by one half step.

Down

1) A note that lasts for 4 beats.

4) A series of five lines and four spaces where the notes are placed.

6) A note that lasts 1/4 beat.

8) A note that lasts for 1 beat

12) The vertical lines you see on a music staff which divides the staff into measures.

13) The sign placed on the music staff to indicate placement of the F below middle C.