Copy or trace the design onto your piece of lino with a pencil or pen. Either let the design go off the edge or adding a border as a frame. Remember the design will print in reverse to the way it's on the lino block, and the bits you cut away won't print.