"O Tannenbaum" (lit. "fir tree") is among the most beloved Christmas carols in German-speaking areas, and thrives elsewhere in translated or instrumental form. Its melody is a traditional German folk tune of unknown origin whose music was first officially printed in the 1799 publications Melodien zum Mildenheimischen Liederbuch and Deutsche Volkslieder. The lyrics, however, are thought to be much older, and were likely based on an Old German ode to the fir titled "O Dannebom."

As for the Modern German carol, the author of its first verse remains unknown; but since the verse appeared in August Zarnack's 1820 songbook Weisenbuch zu den Volksliedern für Volksschule, it is often credited to him. The other two German stanzas were probably written by poet and composer Ernst Gebhard Anschütz, and first appeared four years after Zarnack's version.

* Tanne = fir; Baum = tree. The German term for "Christmas tree" is "Weihnachtsbaum."

Lyrics:

1. O Tannenbaum, o Tannenbaum,
wie treu sind deine Blätter!1
Du grünst nicht nur zur Sommerzeit,
nein, auch im Winter wenn es schneit.
O Tannenbaum, o Tannenbaum,
wie treu sind deine Blätter!

2. O Tannenbaum, o Tannenbaum,
du kannst mir sehr gefallen!
Wie oft hat schon zur Winterzeit, 2
ein Baum von dir mich hoch erfreut!
O Tannenbaum, o Tannenbaum,
du kannst mir sehr gefallen!

3. O Tannenbaum, o Tannenbaum,
dein Kleid will mich was lehren;
die Hoffnung und Beständigkeit
gibt Mut und Kraft zu jeder Zeit! 3
O Tannenbaum, o Tannenbaum,
Dein Kleid will mich was lehren! 4

1. O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree,
how lovely are your branches!
In beauty green will always grow,
through summer sun and winter snow;
O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree,
how lovely are your branches!

O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree,
you are the tree most loved!
How often you give us delight
in brightly shining Christmas light!
O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree,
you are the tree most loved!

O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree,
your beauty green will teach me
that hope and love will ever be the way to joy and peace for me;
O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree,
your beauty green will teach me.

1 also "wie grün sind deine Blätter" (grün = green; treu = faithful)
2 or "wie oft hat nicht zur Weihnachtszeit" (Weihnachtszeit = Christmastime; Winterzeit = wintertime)
3 or "gibt Trost und Kraft zu jeder Zeit" (Trost = comfort; Mut = courage)
4 also "das soll dein Kleid mich lehren"
